Promoting and developing youth theatre in Scotland

SKILL UP 2012

SKILL UP is Promote YT's annual training and networking conference for all organisations and individuals with a stake in youth performing arts. It provides a broad range of quality training experiences, which appeal to all levels, skills and abilities. Now in its 8th year SKILL UP is the only event of its kind in the country and attracts hundreds of practitioners from across Scotland and beyond.

As ever I found the whole event incredibly inspiring, refreshing and fun. I was delighted with the workshops I chose and have already used several of the techniques and games I learned in my own practice. SKILL UP 2011 PARTICIPANT
